Miss You

Won't you come on! come on!

I've been holding out so long
I've been sleeping all alone

Am Dm7
Ooooh oooh oooh ...

Well, I've been haunted in my sleep
You've been starring in my dreams
Lord I miss you
I've been waiting in the hall
Been waiting on your call
When the phone rings
It's just some friends of mine that say,
Hey, what's the matter man?
We're gonna come around at twelve
With some puerto rican girls that are just doin' to meet you.
We're gonna bring a case of wine
Hey, let's go mess and fool around
You know, like we used to
Aah aaah aaah

Am
[speaking] I've been walking in central park
Singing after dark
Dm7
People think I'm crazy
Am
I've been stumbling on my feet
Shuffling through the street
Dm7
Asking people, what's the matter with you boy?

| Am | Dm7 |

Sometimes I want to say to myself
Sometimes I say
Ooooh oooh oooh ...
I won't miss you child
I guess I'm lying to myself
It's just you and no one else
Lord I won't miss you child
You've been blotting out my mind
Fooling on my time
No, I won't miss you, baby, yeah

Lord, I miss you child

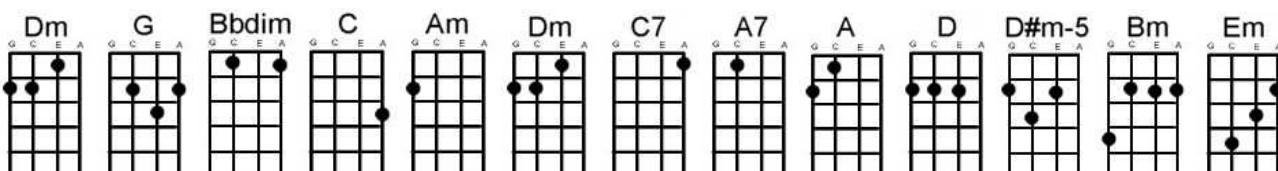

Aah aaah aaah

St. James Infirmary

Leadbelly, Louis Armstrong, Eric Clapton and countless others have recorded versions of "St. James Infirmary," also called "Gambler's Blues." The song goes back as far as the 18th century. Blind Willie McTell recorded a variant in the early '30s, and Bob Dylan's excellent song "Blind Willie McTell" has a similar melody and chord structure (and mentions the St. James Hotel). "St. James Infirmary" is one of many blues songs in which the singer, anticipating his demise, leaves funeral instructions to anyone who might be listening.

Traditional

The sheet music for "St. James Infirmary" consists of eight staves of music. Each staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time (4/4) signature. Chords are indicated above the staff, and the vocal line is written below them. The lyrics are provided for each staff, and some sections include additional information like "See additional verses" or specific performance instructions like "Play 3 times".

- I was down in Old Joe's bar-room, by the corner of the square. The drinks were served as usual, and the usual crowd was there. On my us - u - al crowd was there. His eyes were blood-shot red. He took a look at the crowd all around him, and these are the words he said:—
- "I went now"
- "And now"

Performance Notes:

Additional Lyrics

2. "I went down to St. James Infirmary. I saw my baby there, stretched out on a table, so still, so cold, so fair.
Let her go, let her go, God bless her, wherever she may be.
She may search this wide world over, she'll never find another man like me.

3. When I die boys, won't you bury me in my brand new Stetson hat.
Put a twenty dollar gold piece on my watch chain, so the boys'll know I died standing pat.
Give me six crap shooters for my pall bearers, and a chorus girl to sing me a song.
Put a jazz band on my hearse wagon just to raise hell as we roll along.

4. And now that you've heard my story, let's have another round of booze.
And if anyone ever should ask you, I've got the St. James Infirmary blues."

The image contains five staves of guitar sheet music. Each staff includes a chord diagram above the staff and a corresponding tablature below it. The chords shown are *Dm, A7, Dm, Dm7, Gm, B♭, A7, Dm, Am, E7, Am, Am, Dm6, Am, E7, Am, Am, F9, E7b9, E7b9+, Am, and Am7. And some you just can't tell

With some it's just as well

You can laugh at my behavior

Say the devil is my savior
But I don't pay no heed

Shining like brand new
I'll never look behind me
My troubles will be few

BONUS

Don't worry, be happy

C

Here's a little song I wrote

Dm

You might want to sing it note for note

F C

Don't worry, be happy

In every life we have some trouble

When you worry you make it double

Don't worry, be happy

Don't worry, be happy now

Refrain:

C Dm

Oo, oo-oo-oo, oo-oo-oo, oo-oo-oo-oo-oo

Don't worry

F

Oo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo

Be happy

Oo-oo-oo-oo-oo

Don't worry, be happy

Ain't got no place to lay your head
Somebody came and took your bed
Don't worry, be happy
The landlord say your rent is late
He may have to litigate
Don't worry, be happy

Refrain

But don't worry, be happy
'Cause when you worry, your face will frown
And that will bring everybody down
So don't worry, be happy
Don't worry, be happy now

Refrain

Now there, is this song I wrote
I hope you learned it note for note
Like good little children
Don't worry, be happy
Listen to what I say
In your life expect some trouble
When you worry you make it double
Don't worry, be happy, be happy now
