Hit the road
                Jack an' don't you come back no more.
                    woman, don't treat me so mean,
Oh woman, oh
You're the meanest woman I've ever seen.
  I guess if you say so
  I'll have to pack my things and go. (That's right)
                                                                                   E7

                                                                                   E7
Hit the road
                Jack.
                        Don't you come back no more, no more, no more, no more.
                                                    Am
Hit the road
                Jack an' don't you come back no more.
Now baby, listen baby, don't-a treat me this-a way
For I'll be back on my feet some day.
Don't care if you do 'cause it's un-der-stood
you ain't got no money you just ain't no good.
                                         E7
  Well I guess if you say
  I'll have to pack my things and go. (That's right)
                G
                                                                                   E7
       Am
                                                   Am

                                         E7
Hit the road
                Jack.
                        Don't you come back no more, no more, no more, no more.
       Am
                Jack an' don't you come back no more.
Hit the road
                            Am
Don't you come back no
                            more
                            Am
                                     G
Don't you come back no
                           more ( ad lib... )
